

COUNTY ENGINEERS ASSOCIATION OF MARYLAND

Terms of Service (Privacy Policy)

Thank you for visiting the CEAM website. We respect your privacy. We collect personal data only if you register online as a member of our organization or to attend one of our conferences. We only use this information for fulfilling your requests. These terms of service/privacy policy were adopted by the CEAM Board of Directors at its March 2016 meeting and are subject to change, the substance of which will be posted on the site.

When you register as a CEAM Member through our site, we will collect the following information: your name, address, telephone number, the name of your organization, your title, e-mail address, and credit card information. We use a reputable company to verify your credit card information before billing your membership. Your membership request is processed through a secured server using advanced forms of encryption software.

When you register for a CEAM conference through our site, we will collect the following information: your name, address, telephone number, the name of your organization, your title, e-mail address, whether you are an employee representing an exhibitor, a County or municipal government, a consulting firm, an associate member, or a CEAM member and credit card information. We use a reputable company to verify your credit card information before billing your membership. Your membership request is processed through a secured server using advanced forms of encryption software.

If you do not supply personal information for one of the purposes listed above, we make no attempt to identify you. CEAM may track aggregate usage data only to help us improve site content and organization.

Directory

For the benefit of all CEAM members, CEAM makes a directory of all CEAM members available on this site. The information included in the directory about you includes your name, title, your organization, your mailing address, your email, and your telephone number. Members understand that your information may be used by commercial entities; however, CEAM will never sell your information.

Cookies

A cookie is an electronic file that contains unique information a web site can use to track such things as passwords, lists of pages you've visited, and the date when you last looked at a specific page. Cookies don't identify you personally, but rather identify your computer when you visit our site. It can be used to identify your session at a particular web site. If you are concerned about privacy, you may set up your browser not to accept cookies, or you can delete them from your hard drive once you leave the site.

Sending E-Mail

If you send CEAM an e-mail that includes personal information, we use the information only to respond to your e-mail. We do not use information received in e-mails to create personal profiles. We do not give or sell e-mail information to others for commercial purposes.

By visiting the CEAM web site, users agree to comply with the following terms and conditions.

Compliance with State and Federal Law

Use of this website is governed by applicable Maryland State and Federal laws and regulations. This site shall not be used in an unlawful manner or for unlawful purposes.
