Associate Member of the Year
Chuck Ingram, Sales Mgr.
Slurry Pavers, Inc.

Education

Chuck graduated from Lynchburg College in Virginia (while living at Deep Creek Lake in Garrett Co.), with a B.S. Degree in Physical Education in 1976. He quickly realized that a baseball career was not going to happen, rent was due and started building tennis courts. Before the end of 1976, Slurry Pavers bought their company and he started his career there without ever writing a resume' or having an interview. He was one of 11 full-time employees. They have over 200 now, more than 700 seasonally.

Experience

Chuck worked as foreman or superintendent on several of their crews from tennis court construction to the paving division for 12 years. In 1988 (the year I joined CEAM) they created this Business Development position and decided to expand operations beyond VA. He began promoting Pavement Preservation in the Mid-Atlantic region, initially targeting his home state of Maryland. Whether through CEAM or MDSHA they have reached all 23 MD Counties with their services, as well as 6 other states and Washington D.C.

Membership

Chuck is involved in APWA (VA, MD & DC Chapter), MTBMA (MD Transportation Builders and Materials Assn.), Virginia Asphalt Assn., Va. Transportation Construction Alliance, Certification Trainer for Virginia & S.C. DOT's, work on several committees for ISSA (International Slurry Surfacing Assn) & AEMA (Asphalt Emulsion Manufacturing Assn.), but most proud to be associated with CEAM for nearly 30 years.

Highlights

Chuck is married to his best friend Christina for almost 11 years. They share 4 daughters and 4 beautiful grandchildren.
