

Biographical Information

Reynaldo S.P. de Guzman, P.E.

Mr. de Guzman has 31 years of experience in various departments and divisions within the Prince George's County regulatory system. Most recently, he serves as Chief Engineer with the County's Department of Permitting, Inspections and Enforcement (DPIE), Site Road Plan Review Division formed in 2013, . In this position, he is responsible for the review and permitting of all bridge and roadway construction, roadway improvements, storm drain infrastructure, stormwater management and flood mitigation facilities and policies, Floodplain management, management of projects within the Chesapeake Bay Critical Area, and site grading as it relates to land development in County. He also serves on many technical and policy bodies and collaborations engaged in the establishment of appropriate regulations and standards; process development and streamlining; and Code changes. Some of his achievements include the National Harbor; MGM – National Harbor; Suitland Town Center; University of Maryland Regional Medical Center; FedEx Field – Redskins Stadium; Konterra; and the establishment of DPIE itself.

Prior to DPIE, Mr. Guzman served as senior engineer at the then County's Department of Environmental Resources (DER), Watershed Protection Branch. DER is now the Department of the Environment (DoE). He was promoted to District Engineer with the County's Department of Public Works and Transportation (DPW&T) in 2006 and eventually to Division Chief for the Engineering and Inspections Division.

He is a licensed Professional Engineer in the States of Maryland, the Commonwealth of Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Mr. de Guzman obtained his Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering and Bachelor of Science in Environmental and Sanitary Engineering from Mapua Institute of Technology, Manila, Philippines.

In his spare time, Mr. de Guzman is very involve in his church in Alexandria, VA and with family.